

Understanding Passive Fire Protection

An ASFP CPD Event

In cooperation with AVIVA plc

09:15 – 09:20 Welcome and introduction to the event

Niall Rowan ASFP & Allister Smith, Aviva Insurance

09:20 – 09:35 The vital role of Passive Fire Protection

ASFP CEO Niall Rowan

What is passive fire protection and why is it important?

09:35 – 09:55 The MHCLG response to the Hackitt Review and recommendations

Chandru Dissanayake, Deputy Director, Building Safety Programme, Ministry for Housing Communities & Local Government

09:55 – 10:40 Understanding Passive Fire Protection 1

An overview of the main types of passive fire protection

- Fire doors & hardware – Hannah Mansell, British Woodworking Federation
- Structural fire protection – Andrew Taylor, ASFP
- Fire-stopping – Damien Ward, Checkmate Fire

10:40 – 10:45 Questions

10:45 – 11:15 Coffee break and networking

11:15 – 12:15 Understanding Passive Fire Protection 2

An overview of the main types of passive fire protection

- Fire resisting glass – Stephen Bond, Glass & Glazing Federation
- Fire curtains – Mike Ward, Coopers Fire
- Fire resisting ducts - Darren Webster, Firesafe Fire Rated Ductwork
- Fire resisting & smoke control dampers – TBC, Swegon

12:15 – 12:30 The importance of correct installation, inspection & maintenance

TBC, Exova

What can go wrong, what to look for and the benefits of specifying third party certification of products & installers

12:30 – 12:40 ASFP Training

Phil Brownhill, ASFP Head of Training

An overview of the ASFP Foundation Course for Passive Fire Protection which can lead to Level 2 and Level 3 qualifications awarded by the Institution of Fire Engineers

12:40 – 12:50 How can the ASFP help?

Tony Corcoran, ASFP Membership Officer

A review of the technical publications, guidance, videos and membership services available from the ASFP

12:50 – 13:00 Questions

13:00 Depart