

Understanding Passive Fire Protection
An ASFP CPD Event
In cooperation with Aviva plc and LABSS

09:15 – 09:20 Welcome and introduction to the event

Niall Rowan ASFP & Keith Sully, Aviva Insurance

09:20 – 09:35 The vital role of Passive Fire Protection

ASFP COO Niall Rowan

What is passive fire protection and why is it important?

09:35 – 09:55 The Scottish Government response to Grenfell

Colin Hird MRICS, MIFireE, Head of Fire, Structure and Certification within the Building Standards Division of the Scottish Government

09:55 – 10:40 Understanding Passive Fire Protection 1

An overview of the main types of passive fire protection

- Structural fire protection , TBC
- Fire-stopping, Sharon Lobban, Avesta Scotland Ltd
- Fire doors & hardware Hannah Mansell – British Woodworking Federation

10:40 – 10:45 Questions

10:45 – 11:10 Coffee break and networking

11:10 – 12:00 Understanding Passive Fire Protection 2

An overview of the main types of passive fire protection

- Fire resisting glass – TBC
- Fire curtains – TBC
- Fire resisting ducts – TBC
- Dampers – Steve Archibald, Swegon Air

12:00 – 12:20 The importance of correct installation, inspection & maintenance

TBC

What can go wrong, what to look for and the benefits of specifying third party certification of products & installers

12:20 – 12:35 How can the ASFP help?

Tony Corcoran, ASFP Membership Officer

A review of the training, technical publications, guidance, videos and membership services available from the ASFP

12:35 – 12:45 Questions

12:45 Depart

